LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

Dear Samford Community,

As the 2024 On the Record pages come to life, I am privileged to reflect on all the memories, moments, and milestones that defined the 2024-2025 academic year at Samford University. Journalistically, "on the record" is material officially recorded and kept. As a staff, we adopted the title On the Record in honor of journalism and to reestablish our goal of recording and keeping track of this year's moments. Along with the excitement of start-ups past fall and cherished traditions shared among us, On the Record is a permanent snapshot of moments that make this year unforgettable. It has been an honor to work with such a talented and dedicated group of staff members who have poured their hearts into making this vision a reality. We thank each individual who contributed their stories, pictures, and experiences. Your voices, memories, and perspectives make this book a true reflection of our collective experience. Thank you for being part of this journey. Here's to the memories we've made and those still being created.

Sincerely,
Hanna Allen, Editor-In-Chief

SGA

"My time in SGA has been everything and more—a journey marked by purpose, growth, and deep friendship. Through every high and low, the Lord's faithfulness in our Association remained the same. I've had the privilege of meeting some of my best friends and serving alongside the most passionate people. My greatest hope for my time in SGA is that the feelings felt most by our students was unwavering commitment, support, and love." -James Jefferson, SGA President

The Student Government Association represents and promotes student interest in the decision-making process of Samford University by cultivating and maintaining leadership among students. The SGA also develops, coordinates, and executes activities and services for the benefit of the students.

"Connections Weekend welcomes incoming students into the Samford and Birmingham community. A team of over 100 upperclassmen leaders provide support, guidance, and encouragement to incoming students during their first few days on campus. Weekend events include Friday Night Social, Pops with the Prez, Neon Party, and other fun activities for incoming students to meet their fellow peers. This weekend is a great kick-off for incoming students to make intentional relationships that sustain throughout their Samford experience."

Homecoming

Emma Wolfe, Queen

Jack Oliver, King

Samford University's 2024 Homecoming hosted students, alums, faculty, and guests for a week of celebration marked by tradition, community, and school spirit. Samford held time-honored events such as the banner competition, the announcement of the Homecoming King and Queen, and the annual Homecoming Quad Party. Reunion events were hosted for the Classes of 2014, 1999, and 1974, allowing alums to reconnect and share memories of their Samford years. Academic departments also hosted various events. The week's events concluded with the Homecoming football game at Seibert Stadium, where Samford hosted Wofford University.

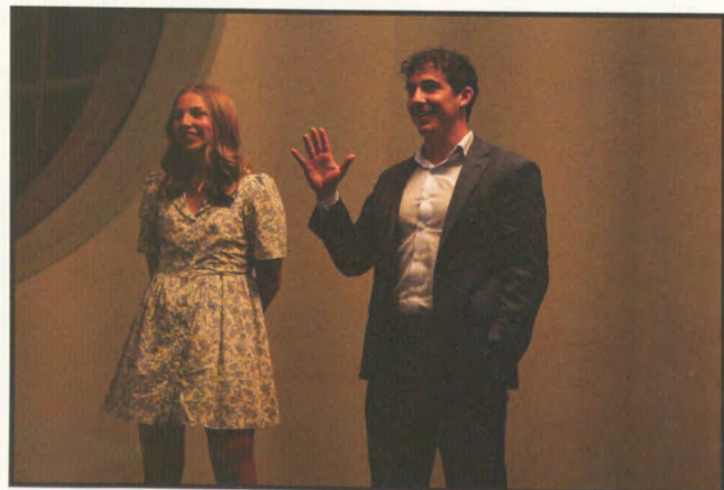

IFC

"To me, IFC is a community. More than that, it's a Christ-centered culture that actively pursues biblical manhood in a world that often neglects it. It's a place where friends walk with you through the mundane rhythms of life, showing up to celebrate your highs and stand beside you in your lows. Beyond that, IFC is a training ground for leadership, shaping men to lead with purpose and integrity long after college ends. I'm incredibly thankful for all that I have been able to receive from being a part of it and hope that I have been able to leave a small imprint for the future IFC community."

-Grant Sides, IFC President

NPHC

Samford NPHC is the council that hosts the divine 9 sororities and fraternities.

Currently the campus has four organizations and counting. The councils goal is to make sure that all students are able to find their place on campus and in Greek life. As Samford grows in size this gives NPHC the opportunity to grow alongside it and continue to make a difference in their communities.

"I have made some truly amazing connections in my time in NPHC and I hope that as it continues to grow individuals in the council are able to make these connections not just in NPHC but in Greek life as a whole."

-Kennedy Russell, NPHC President

"Panhellenic has been one of the sweetest and most awesome parts of my Samford Story. It's an organization where friendships turn into sisterhood and leadership turns into love for something bigger than myself. It's shown me the beauty of women supporting women and the joy that comes from serving a community full of heart."

-Ella Ingram, Panhellenic President

Panhellenic

This year, our Panhellenic community celebrated a season of growth, unity, and impact. We welcomed a brand-new chapter to our campus, expanding opportunities for sisterhood and connection. In addition, two new sorority houses were constructed, marking an exciting new era for our community. We also partnered with campus organizations like Campus Wellness and Campus Recreation to host educational and wellness-focused programming. From meaningful sisterhood events to campus-wide philanthropic efforts, Panhellenic has continued to foster leadership, service, and lifelong friendships across all chapters.

"It is an honor to get a front row seat of all of our chapter's accomplishments this year! Our members always go above and beyond in service to Samford's campus and our sisterhood. Whether having a fun sisterhood bingo night, raising funds for Ronald McDonald Charities during Chili CookOff, or laughing in Step Sing Practice, our sisters are continually living for each other and the community around them every day."

-Mary Rene Quarles, President of Alpha Delta Pi

Alpha Delta Pi

"Sisterhood is not an event, but a loyal pursuit."

-Mallory Jeancake, Leadership Engagement Specialist, AC '24

Alpha Delta Pi had members serving in every area of campus this past year including Panhellenic Executive Council, Student Government Organization, guides and officers for the Student Recruitment Team, Ambassadors, and nine Step Sing Directors. At Grand Convention this past summer Kappa chapter received its 25th Golden Lion Award, the highest achievement an Alpha Delta Pi chapter can receive. Kappa has received the most Golden Lions out of any chapter internationally, while also receiving the Diamond Four Point Award. During ADPi academy, Kappa chapter was honored with eight programming excellence awards including Recruitment Excellence, Academic Excellence, Operations Excellence, Facilities Management Excellence, History Reporting Excellence, Panhellenic Excellence, Marketing Excellence, and Membership Excellence. Additionally, Kappa was one of two chapters recognized for excellence in the "Experience ADPi Campaign," for excelling in marketing efforts to promote their sisterhood. Five of their members were recognized by internationals in receiving the Ruth Pretty Palmer Award, the Dory Shaw Award, and the Emerging Leader Award. Their Executive Chapter Advisor, Lori Sullivan, was also recognized by Samford Greek Life as the 2024 Chapter Advisor of the year.

Alpha Kappa Alpha

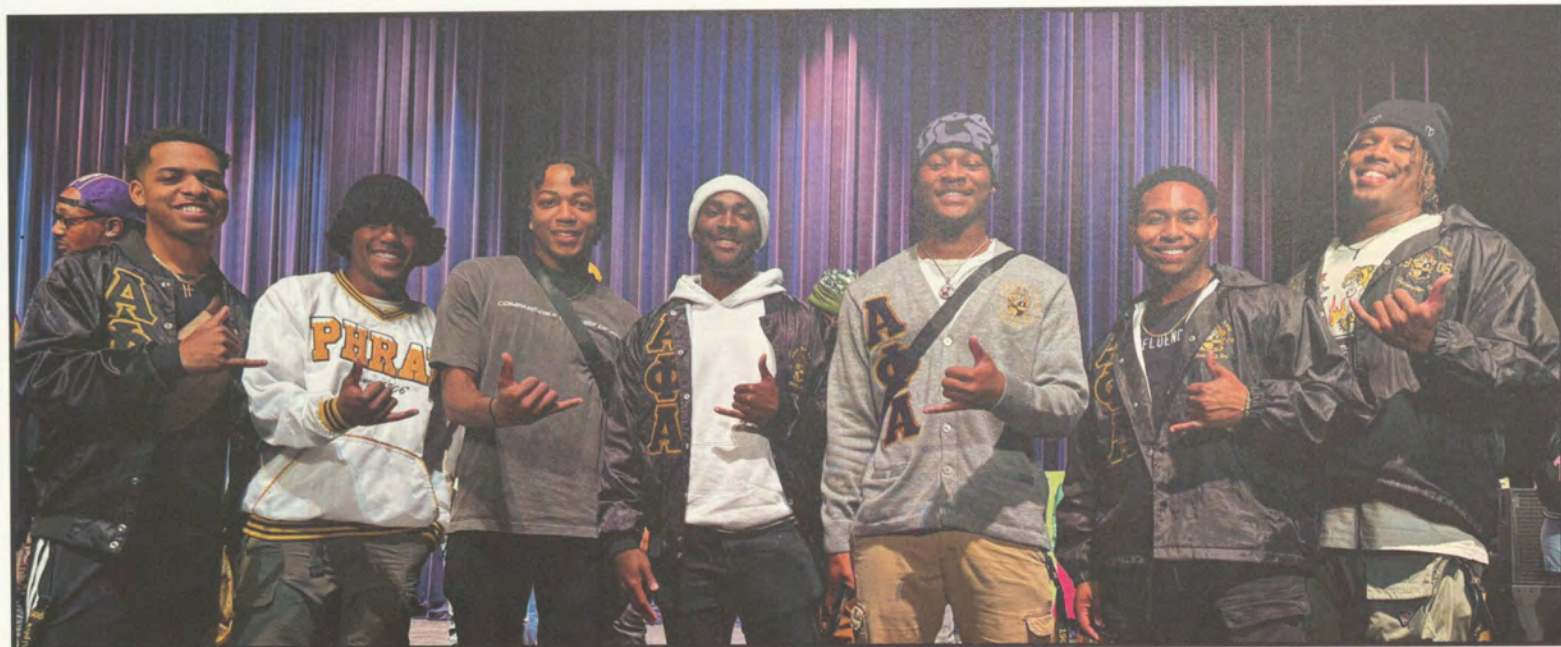

The Omicron Mu Chapter had a busy year. Winning six awards at the Greek Awards Ceremony in 2024. They also went to our international conference in Dallas Texas where they met members from all over the world. In the fall we brought on seven new members and a transfer from Birmingham Southern College bringing their total membership to 17. Under the leadership of Madison Parrish, and now Maggie Sims, they have shined as a chapter. The past year has had lots of joy and growth and they can't wait to see what the next year will bring.

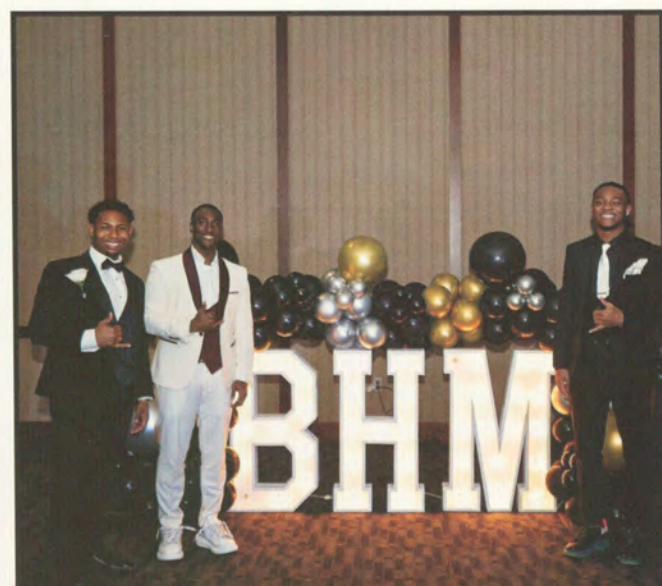

"AKA is the empowerment of sisterhood and service. Being a part of AKA is more than a sisterhood but an opportunity to serve the community on a grand scale. AKA has shaped me to be a leader, sister, advocate, but most importantly a better person."

-Maggie Sims, Chapter President

Alpha Phi Alpha

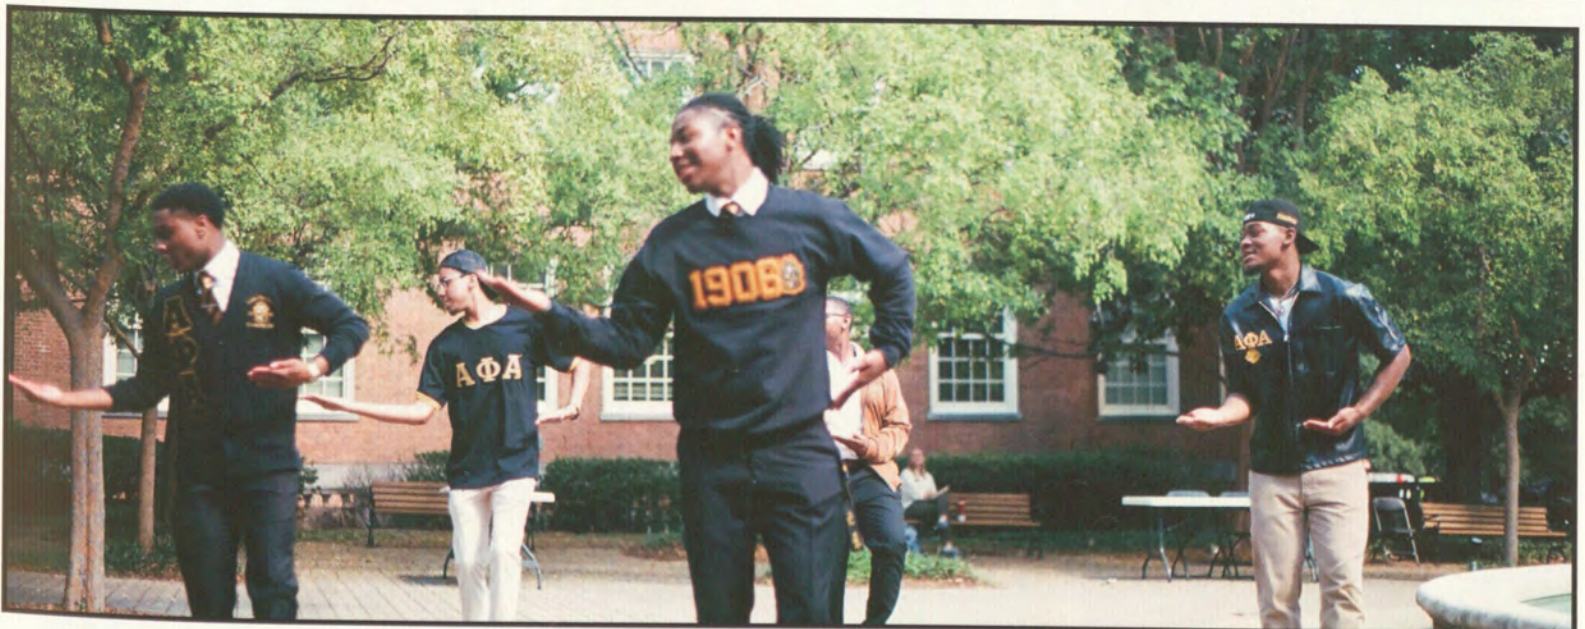

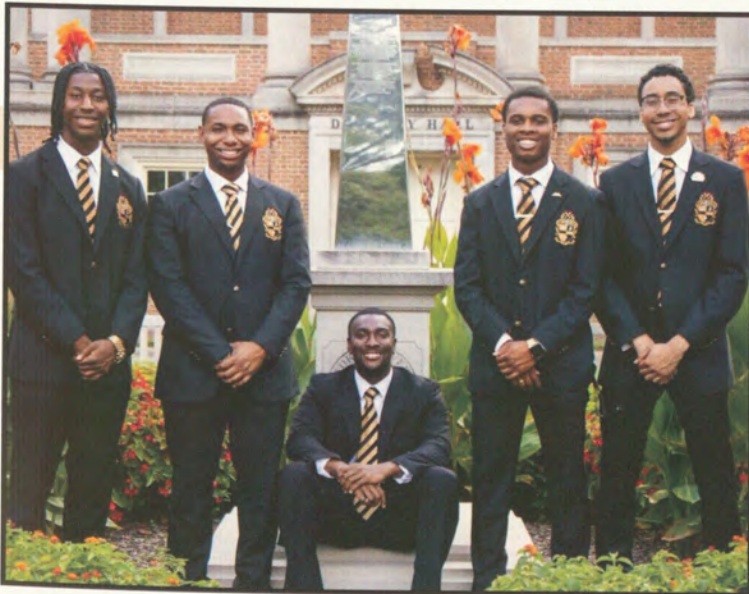

This year, Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity Inc.'s Tau Iota chapter celebrated twenty-five years of leadership, brotherhood, and service on Samford's campus. We've continued this legacy by mentoring local youth, participating in impactful community service, and hosting events that enrich our campus community. Our chapter earned the Outstanding Chapter Involvement award for going beyond social events to collaborating with members of the Greek community and encouraging our members to serve in various leadership roles. Brother Akeim Thames won Greek Man of the Year, demonstrating excellence by leaving a legacy of impact. Brother Caleb John received the Emerging Greek Leader award for his impactful participation in Greek functions and initiatives to serve brothers beyond expectations. He won our Alabama district convention's Belford V. Lawson oratorical competition and earned first-runner-up at the southern regional. He also was elected as the 2025-2026 SGA student body president. Brother Jay Raby was crown Mr. Samford in Zeta Tau Alpha's philanthropy pageant competition, representing our chapter and raising funds for breast cancer research.

"Alpha is more than just a fraternity- it's a family filled with purpose, and brothers that push me to grow. It's a lifelong bond that challenges me to lead, uplift others, and reminds me that if we are to be the leaders we've been looking for, we must become better people and fight for a more just campus, community, and world.

-Caleb John, President of Alpha Phi Alpha

The Rho Delta chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi was established on Samford's Campus in 1995 and this year, we celebrated our 30th year! This was an exciting year for AOII, full of love, laughter, and a lifetime of memories. From dancing the night away at our Masquerade-themed formal to welcoming home 87 sweet new members at their "Cherry On Top" Bid day, the bonds of our sisterhood have only been strengthened.

In addition to having so much fun together, Rho Delta loves spending time together as we support our Birmingham and Samford communities. This year, AOII partnered with the Lakeshore Foundation to sponsor their trunk-or-treat and partnered with Samford for Samford Gives Back. The sisters of AOII have a love for service, specifically for the Arthritis Foundation. This year, we partnered with the Birmingham Barons to host a Philanthropy night to raise money and awareness for Juvenile Arthritis. Through celebration and service to others, AOII's vibrant sisterhood is stronger than ever and looking forward to a new chapter as we move into our brand new house!.

Alpha Omicron Pi

"To be a part of AOII's sisterhood is to be known, loved, and celebrated! The women of Rho Delta have shown me what genuine and loyal friendship looks like through their actions and constant words of encouragement!"

-Mary Claire Nimon, Chapter President

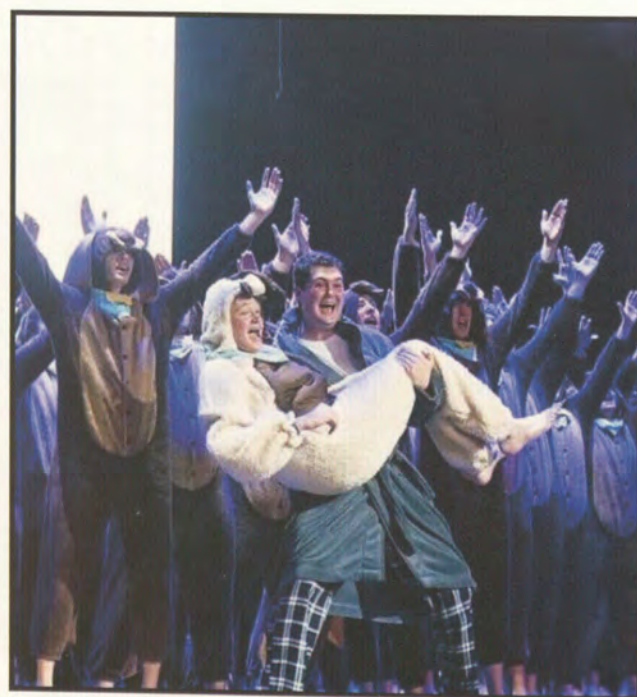

ATO Kappa Rho has had a great school year once again. March of 2025 marks the year anniversary since their chartering. Brothers are also so excited for their new house which they will be officially living in next fall. As always, they've had a blast putting on their Step Sing show and doing other Samford events!

"it's a great honor to be apart of this group of men. ATO has been one of the most meaningful parts of my time at Samford. It's a group of guys who are serious about becoming better men—learning to follow Jesus, to lead with humility, and to show up for each other. I'm grateful for what this brotherhood has been in my life."

-Nate Bass, President of Alpha Tau Omega

Alpha Tau Omega

Beta Theta Pi

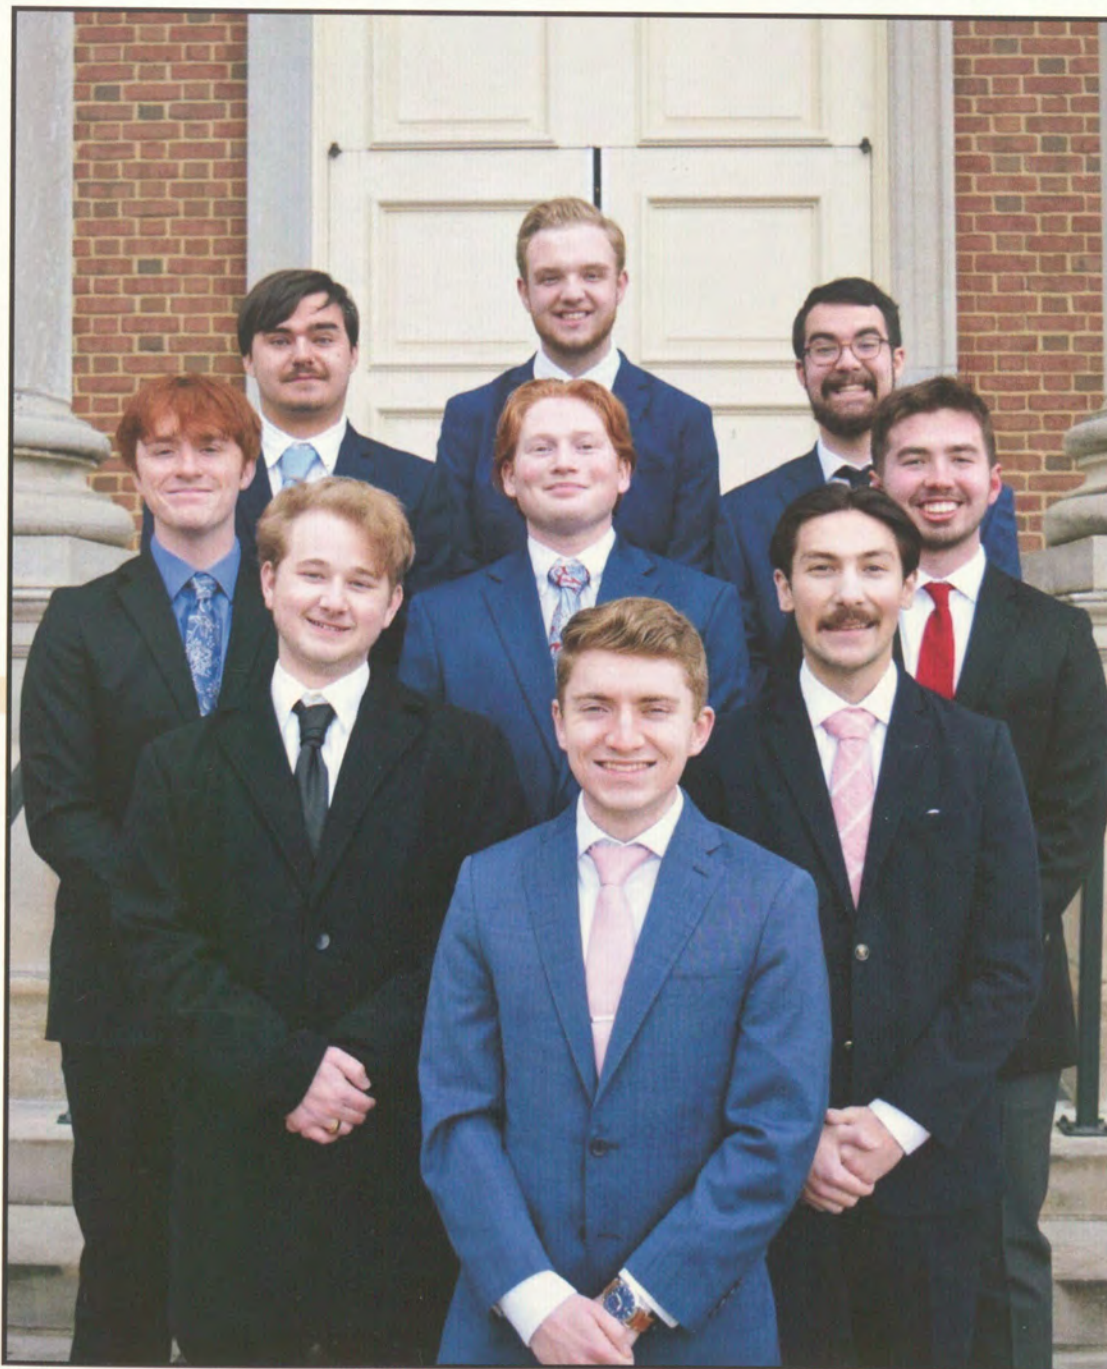

"This year has been an amazing showing of brotherhood for our chapter, and I am continually encouraged by the impact that my brothers have had on campus."

-Ethan Viner, President of Beta Theta Pi

This is Beta Theta Pi's third year on campus, and now third executive council. Their president is Ian Viner, and they are currently in the process of chartering with our general fraternity with the anticipation of receiving our charter at the end of August. They had a fall recruitment class last semester of 7 and this spring they had a recruitment class of 2. They have hosted their third semi-formal and their second formal of their time at Samford this year. Throughout their time on campus, they have had the opportunity to support Firehouse Ministries, a local homeless shelter, with fundraising and service events. This past year these fundraisers included a soccer tournament and BBQ on the quad, and for their service events they have gone to the shelter to organize and serve food. Their brothers are on all parts of campus. Their VP of Recruitment, Cade Harkness, has been the male lead in multiple Underground theater productions. Harkness and some other brothers are on the e-sports team, and they even have brothers on the Samford Shooting Sports team. They also have brothers in various clubs such as Ducks Unlimited and the Barbell Society, as well as different ministries such as RUF and the Catholic Student Organization. Their chapter is eager to continue growing to expand our involvement with and impact on Samford's campus.

"To Develop Men of Principle for a Principled Life"

"To me, Chi Omega feels like home. The women in this chapter lift me up when I can't stand. They bring me coffee and handwritten notes when I feel lonely. They encourage me to rest when I'm tired and burnt out. In the sisterhood of Zeta Zeta, you will find women who rally around competitive events like flag football with the same passion as we bring to fundraising for our philanthropy, Make-A-Wish. Our chapter is a safe place to celebrate, mourn, fail, and grow. Here, you don't have to be anyone but yourself. You have a seat at our table for who you are—not for who we expect you to be. I would not be where I am today without the unwavering encouragement, guidance, and leadership of the women in this chapter."

-Rachel Strickland, President of Chi Omega

Chi Omega

Chi Omega is an intergenerational women's organization, forever committed to their six founding purposes: Friendship, Personal Integrity, Service to Others, Academic Excellence and Intellectual Pursuits, Community and Campus Involvement, and Personal Development. In Zeta Zeta, sisters are inspired by Chi Omega's values, and serve the world while keeping Chi Omega ever at heart. Through the past year, the Zeta Zeta chapter of Chi Omega has received many awards. They have both the highest Panhellenic and all of Greek Life GPA at Samford. Nationally, they have a chapter at the campus total, 100% new member retention from the previous pledge class, and are #1 in scholarship nationally. Chi Omega's philanthropy is the Make-A-Wish foundation, and through events such as their fall "Wish Week" and their spring "Swishes" basketball tournament, are able to grant money to provide children with wishes. In 2024, Zeta Zeta raised over $15,000 for Make-A-Wish. In March 2025, they were also given the opportunities to host "Wish Parties" for two children, sending them both to Disney World. Zeta Zeta is beyond grateful for another successful year.

Sisters on Purpose.

Delta Delta Delta

The Epsilon Xi chapter of Delta Delta Delta was established on Samford University's campus in 2016 with a mission to promote excellence within our sisterhood, serve our community, and foster a lifetime of personal growth and lasting friendships. Their core values—truth, self-sacrifice, and friendship—are reflected in everything our members do. Since their founding, Epsilon Xi members have dedicated themselves to enriching the community through internships, volunteer work across the Birmingham area, and maintaining active involvement on Samford's campus.

They have a strong partnership with our national philanthropy, St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, which is focused on finding a cure for childhood cancer. Additionally, in recent years, they have built a meaningful connection with Smile-A-Mile, a local Birmingham-based organization that provides hope and healing for families affected by childhood cancer. Both of these causes are close to their hearts, and their sisterhood is united through philanthropy events that support these important organizations. Each year, we host the Delta House of Pancakes (DHOP) event and organize a letter-writing campaign to benefit St. Jude and Smile-A-Mile, reaffirming our commitment to causes greater than themselves.

In Tri Delta, sisters are dedicated to more than just the collegiate experience; they are passionate about forming enduring friendships and serving a purpose beyond ourselves. Epsilon Xi takes great pride in exemplifying Christ-like love, continually encouraging, inspiring, and uplifting one another.

"I have the pleasure of serving as the President of the Sigma Eta Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated for a second year. As I reflect over my time as president, I am thrilled by the phenomenal work my chapter and organization has done. Being an organization founded on sisterhood, scholarship, service, and social action makes us excited to continue the legacy of serving our community on and off campus. We are looking forward to seeing incredible things from our chapter in the future."

Delta Sigma Theta

The sisters of Delta Sigma Theta are proud to share that this year has been one of growth and success. They successfully initiated three new members, continuing their legacy of excellence and sisterhood. Additionally, our chapter has maintained impactful programming focused on scholarship, service, and social action, including community outreach initiatives and educational events that have enriched our campus and local community. Through dedicated leadership and collaboration, we strive to uphold the values of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated and make a positive impact wherever we serve.

Kappa Delta

"Kappa Delta Sorority is a national organization for women committed to: encouraging members to live with integrity and honor in the bonds of lifelong friendship; building confidence in members to excel in college and throughout their lives; inspiring members to be active leaders, responsible citizens and engaged members of the community; and providing opportunities and experiences that foster personal and professional growth for a lifetime. The Delta Theta chapter of Kappa Delta reestablished at Samford University this past fall! Delta Theta was previously active at Samford from 1968 to 1985. Kappa Delta is the first new sorority at Samford since 2015. We're excited to grow our community at Samford and continue our legacy on and off campus."

-Sarah Childress, President of Kappa Delta

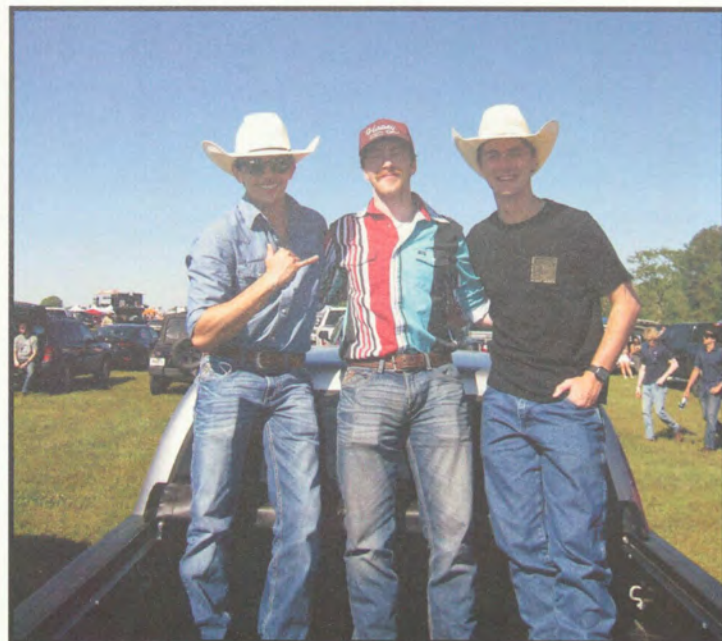

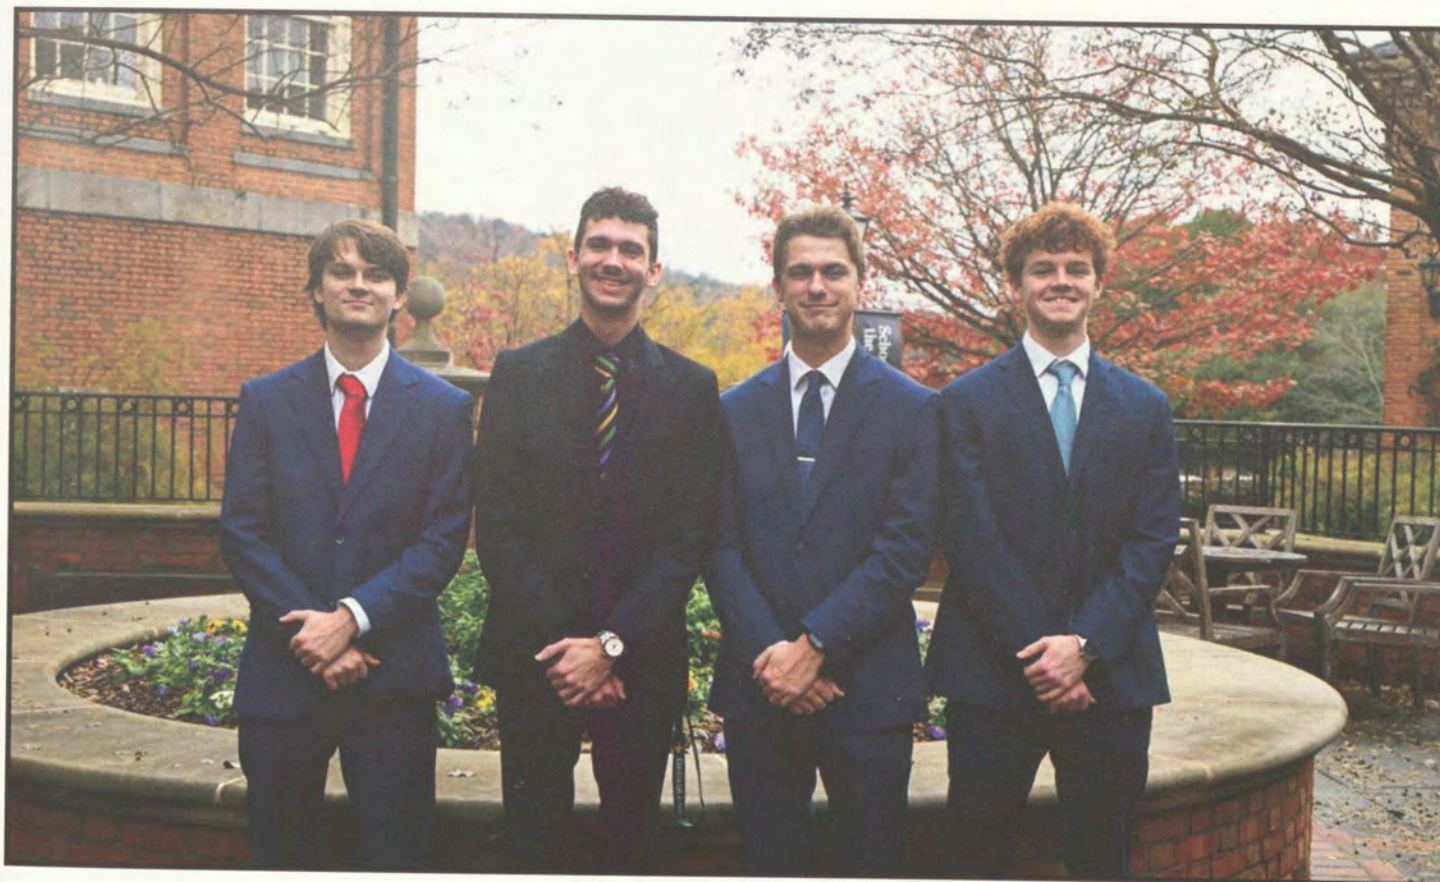

For Delta Theta, the past year has been one of immense growth and success. Fall 2023 ushered in their founding class of sisters, followed by a 300% increase in membership throughout 2024. Their chapter has experienced a year full of achievements, growth, connection, and development. Delta Theta is proud to have been reestablished on Samford's campus and produce a positive impact for both our members and the Samford community. Their chapter feels nothing but pride for the precedent set by our founding year. In Spring 2024, Delta Theta hosted their first Shamrock Fundraiser event, titled KD Quesadillas. Through this event, Delta Theta's founding 55 members were able to raise over $10,000 for their local beneficiary, the Prescott House, and their national philanthropies, Prevent Child Abuse America and the Girl Scouts of the USA. They also tabled during the past three semesters to spread awareness for child abuse prevention, and to collect donations for the Prescott House. As their chapter continues to grow, Delta Theta looks forward to expanding and continuing to develop their fundraising efforts. Their members' drive, curiosity, and passion for growing the chapter has been an invaluable source of support in our founding year, and has created a culture that they are excited to continue developing in the future.

Honorable. Beautiful. Highest.

"Lambda Chi has developed me to become a better leader and a better Christian man just in 3 years. Our goal as a fraternity is to make men great men so when they leave this institution they will be a great representation of this chapter and its Christian values."

*-William Guthrie,
president of Lambda Chi Alpha*

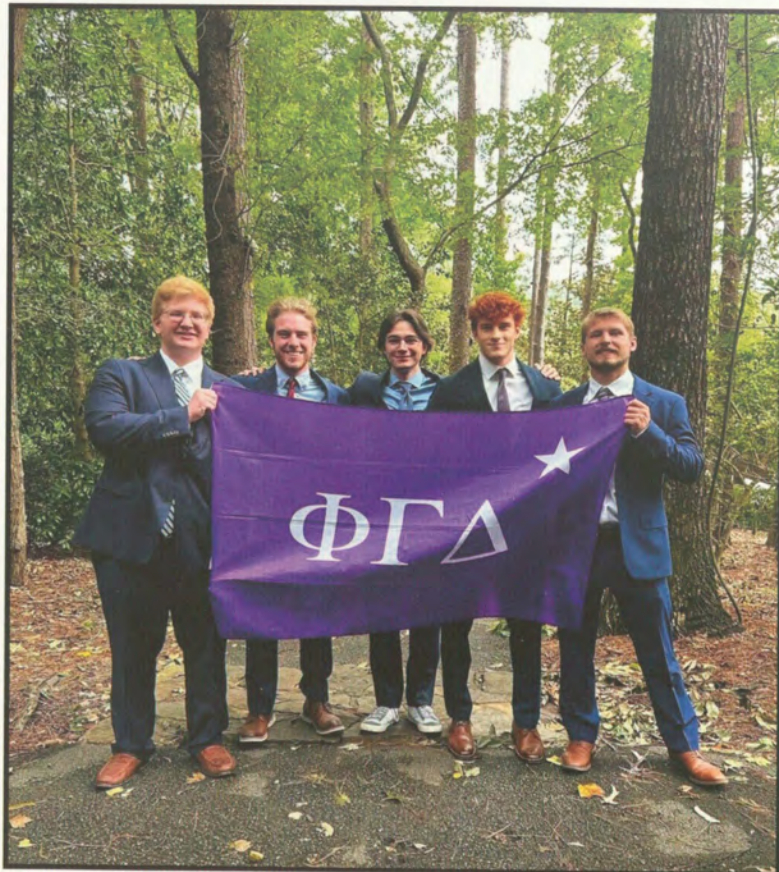

Lambda Chi Alpha

Lambda Chi has continued to there goal for growth as a chapter. In order to do so, they've put an emphasis on recruitment and developing leaders. The chapter has established a relationship with the American Red Cross and held their most successful philanthropic week in the past 12 years. For the first time in almost 20 years Lambda Chi returned to the grid in Step Sing in partnership with other chapters to create The Other Guys.

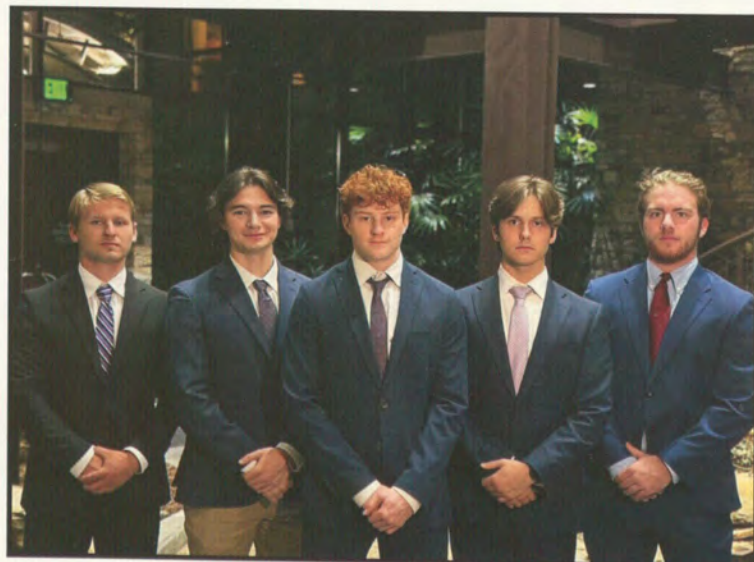

Phi Gamma Delta

Phi Gamma Delta is a collection of like-minded men that are dedicated to pursuing the following principles: friendship, knowledge, service, morality, and excellence. Our brotherhood is not for college days alone and is a lifelong commitment to pursuing excellence. The brothers of Phi Gamma Delta have many things to be proud of this year, including recruiting 47 Brothers during fall rush and having the largest spring class of 2025 at Samford.

They also received the Educational Programming Award from IFC, organized a Large-Scale Vintage Market on campus for our Island Week Philanthropy and raised approximately $2,000 for the American Red Cross, and hosted multiple social gatherings, including: mixers, Island Party, and a Spring Formal. They are Phi Gamma Delta's most successful chapter expansion in 5 years and are on track to officially charter in fall 2025.

"It's more than a typical brotherhood, it's a family. Just like a family there's times where we may argue or bicker, but at the end of the day it means that I have brothers that care for me, that love me. That while we may not agree on everything, we're still family. That when I walk in to the chapter room on a Sunday night, I have a room full of 50+ guys that are willing to invest their time and effort into making me a better man. Brothers that, when I'm not strong enough to fight my battles, come into the trenches and fight with me. To me being a Fiji is more than wearing the title on a T-shirt. It's being there when my brothers need me. It's Family. Love my brothers, proud to be a Fiji."

-Michael Wickmann, President of FIJI

Phi Mu

The Alpha Gamma chapter of Phi Mu has had another successful year! Sisters were extremely proud for a bunch of accomplishments, including winning Step Sing 2025 Sweepstakes for their show "In Motion." This past year, they had a member of their chapter work in a competitive internship for the Phi Mu Foundation, an organization that seeks to empower, educate, and support women in Phi Mu! They also had a member win the title of Miss Teen Vounteer America. Sisters of Phi Mu had women serve as orientation leaders, on Panhellenic exec, in leadership positions for the Student Recruitment Team, serve on SGA, Samford Ambassadors, and so much more during this past year. Beyond Samford, sisters serve in leadership roles in various ministries, and many have served on mission trips both domestic and abroad. Following recent trends, Alpha Gamma had a record breaking year of raising money for their philanthropy, Children's Miracle Network Hospitals, through various events. Phi Mu has so much to be proud of from this past year, and are looking forward to continuing in their success.

"Words cannot begin to describe the gratitude I have for Phi Mu Alpha Gamma and the women in this chapter. Phi Mu is a place where I am surrounded by women who see the best in me and call me higher, encouraging me to grow into the person the Lord created me to be. The girls in Phi Mu truly embody Romans 12:15, which says, "Rejoice with those who rejoice; mourn with those who mourn," as they celebrate with me in my highs and comfort me in my lows. Phi Mu is a place of authenticity, where each girl is celebrated for who they uniquely are, each one of them making the chapter complete."

"I am so thankful for the lifelong friends Pi Kapp has given me that have inspired me to love the Lord and love others well. I am leaving Samford a better man than when I came in, and I can confidently attribute much of that growth to my time in Pi Kapp."

-Caleb New, President of Pi Kappa Phi

Pi Kappa Phi

The gentlemen of Pi Kappa Phi celebrated their 100th year at Samford's campus this year on April 25. The past 100 years have been full of joy, laughter, exceptional leaders, and uncommon opportunities. Alumni and brothers gathered together for a time of celebration and fellowship — emphasizing a lifelong brotherhood.

As brothers, the men of Pi Kapp push to be involved in all areas of campus, excelling as leaders and members of the larger Samford community. Brothers had the opportunity to serve as Samford Ambassadors, members of the Samford Recruitment Team, Connections coordinators, leaders, and operations, in the Office of Spritual Life, in the alumni center, the Office of Parent and Family Engagement, in Student Activities, Student Government Association, and more.

Pi Kapp's verse is Proverbs 27:17, which states, "As iron sharpens iron, so one man sharpens another." The brothers seek to refine each other to the highest standards of brotherhood. New states that "I am leaving Samford a better man than when I came in, and I can confidently attribute much of that growth to my time in Pi Kapp." There is a cycle of development and mentorship within the brotherhood that brings out the highest in the brothers.

Pi Kappa Phi kicked off the year welcoming 40 members into their Alpha Nu pledge class as associates and eventually brothers. The fall was packed with intramurals, worship nights, and receiving this new class into the fraternity. In January, 80 of the brothers came down with a "Fever" during their Disco themed stepsing show. Directors Jonah Wetsel, Jackson Griffie, and Jacob Mclendon led the brothers skating and moon walking across the stage, bringing disco back — or perhaps, it never died. In the spring, Pi Kapp put on its annual Barn Bath and Rose Ball functions, putting their dancing skills from stepsing to the test.

The fraternity's national Philanthropy is unique to the the letters, dubbed the "Ability Experience." The Ability Experience works to raise funds awareness for disability related causes, pouring into local facilities and putting on disability-related events. One brother, Jesse Hungerpiller, had the opportunity to participate in the flagship event of the Ability Experience, called Journey of Hope. The Journey of Hope is a two month cross-country biking event where brothers from across the country begin at the west coast and end in Washington, DC. All the while, they are raising awareness and visiting facilities for those with disabilities. And in 100 years, Pi Kapp's vision remains the same, looking to create strong leaders amidst a turbulent world.

Sigma Chi

Sigma Chi is more than a fraternity. It's a brotherhood that fosters growth, integrity, and a shared commitment to excellence. The Pi Chapter has shaped countless men into individuals who strive for humility, courage, and continuous self-improvement. They believe the goal isn't perfection, but continuous improvement. It's about pushing one another to rise above challenges and embrace the pursuit of becoming the best versions of ourselves. At Sigma Chi, they know comfort is where growth goes to die.

At the core of everything we do is a desire to reflect the love and grace of Jesus Christ, striving to live lives of purpose and meaning. Sigma Nu

The Iota chapter of Sigma Nu at Samford University is built on the principles of Love, Honor, and Truth. Sigma Nu is the oldest fraternity at Samford University and the longest standing Sigma Nu chapter in the country. It has continued its traditions and histories of a strong brotherhood since 1879. Sigma Nu has built a brotherhood in which we strive to build leaders both off and on campus. This year Sigma Nu helped raise money for their philanthropy hope for the warriors. They also had students across campus write letters of encouragement to veterans. Sigma Nu has continued to live through its values and shape men to become Christ-centered leaders.

"Sigma Nu has given me incredible opportunities to grow—not just as a leader, but as a man. The leadership experiences and lifelong friendships I've made through this brotherhood have truly shaped who I am today."

"Serving as President has challenged and encouraged me to seek out those that may feel misunderstood or isolated. I truly want to extend not only a hand but my heart to the women in Zeta. Being in a sorority is such a privilege and an opportunity that not everyone gets to experience, and I want to steward the gifts that God has given to me, even if that means only making one person feel loved. Zeta has had an impact on my overall development: relational, spiritual and professional. Never in my life will I ever be surrounded by over 250 women. I don't take a single moment, function, sisterhood event or meeting for granted. Zeta has provided me with a home away from home and has put women in my life that hold me accountable and encourage me to invest in a community much bigger than myself. Throughout my time in Zeta, I have learned the beauty in humility and gratitude which ultimately leads to selfless service."

The Delta Psi chapter of Zeta Tau Alpha has had a great year on and outside of campus. At this year's ZTA Day, our chapter was honored to receive recognition for both "Strategic Communications" and the "Spirit Award"—two accolades that reflect the heart behind our sisterhood and the intentional efforts we put into everything we do. The Strategic Communications award celebrates their chapter's ability to effectively tell our story, both internally and externally, through consistent branding, strong social media presence, and clear messaging that reflects the mission and values of Zeta Tau Alpha. Whether it's promoting their philanthropy events, highlighting sister achievements, or building excitement around recruitment, they aim to create content that not only informs but also inspires. The Spirit Award, on the other hand, reflects the energy, unity, and sisterhood that they strive to embody every single day. It was a beautiful reminder that their joy, passion, and love for ZTA are not only felt within our walls but also seen by others.

In addition to their ZTA Day recognitions, they were deeply humbled to be named "Chapter of the Year" by the Greek Life Office at Samford University. This award is a testament to the consistency, leadership, and impact our chapter has had both on campus and in the broader Birmingham community. From their dedication to academic excellence and leadership development to our philanthropic efforts and involvement in campus life, this honor encapsulates the collective heart and hard work of every member. Their Executive Council and chapter members have poured countless hours into planning, leading, and serving—and receiving this recognition affirmed that those efforts matter.

One of the highlights of our theirr was hosting Mr. Samford, a campus-wide event that raised money and awareness for our national philanthropy: Breast Cancer Education and Awareness. Through sponsorships, ticket sales, and generous donations, we were able to make a tangible difference in the lives of those affected by breast cancer—and remind Samford's campus community that hope and support are always within reach.

Panhellenic Bid Day

The Panhellenic community was grateful to welcome nearly 600 new members on their fall bid day this September. They also welcomed additional members throughout the year during the continuous open bidding process (COB). They are so excited to see the girls who accepted bids this school year grow in their chapter and serve Samford and the community.

We are a group of passionate students that help foster growth in writing and leadership through journalism. We also love competing and winning awards in conferences such as SEJC, CMA and so many more. Some of our proudest accomplishments this year are our election night issue, our week 8 issue that won a national award, and going to New York to lead a panel."

The Air Force ROTC program at Detachment 012 strives to mold cadets, build leaders of character, and create future officers that will lead the United States Air or Space Force. What Det 012 lacks in size, it makes up for in the quality of its cadre and cadets alike. The cadets in this program come from every major and background and learn how to become better leaders while spending their college years participating in early morning training, evaluations, and countless opportunities to one day commission as an officer and lead the world's greatest Air Force.

Our supportive community consists of mentoring professors and encouraging peers, a community of passionate "doers" with a shared purpose: to make a difference.

"As a faculty member in Samford's School of the Arts, I can say with confidence that this is an exciting time to be part of our community. Our programs are growing in dynamic ways, our students are using their gifts to serve others, and our alumni are finding success in a wide range of creative fields. It is a privilege to help guide and support our students in their academic and artistic development."

ARCHITECTURE & INTERIOR DESIGN

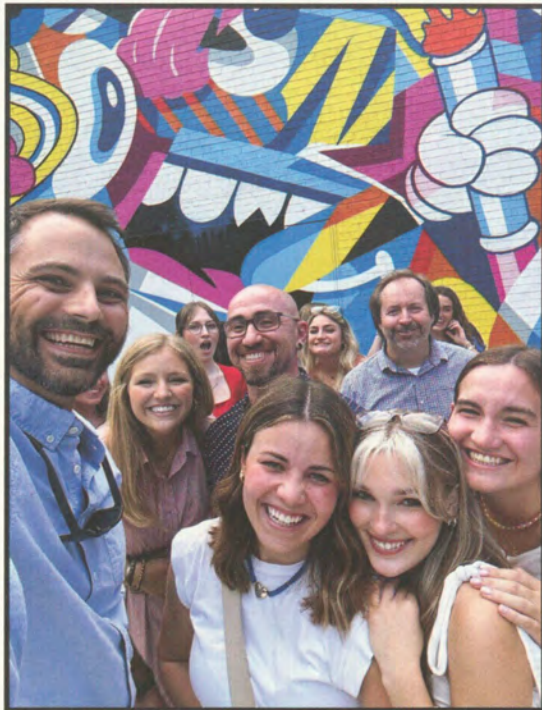

The interior design and architecture studios combine technology and learning centers with a vertical integration of student interaction. Freshman and sophomores visualize their academic process through exposure to juniors and seniors who play a mentoring role. Disciplines are located adjacent to each other, work collaboratively on projects, and share in each program's design education and resources. Students have access to up-to-date technology including 3-D printers, large format plotters and scanners, laser cutters and a CNC router to assist them with their projects. Students can access their workspaces all day.

"I love the interior design program because of the close knit relationships we have between students and teachers that make the program truly feel more like a family. The education and experiences we get through real world projects, field trips, and from our teachers who actively work in the interior design field make me feel prepared for a career in this profession and excited for the possibilities of what hasn't been designed yet."

- Audrey Tinsley

The bulldogs closed the regular season off at home in a down to the wire game against Western Carolina.

As the season progressed the dogs kept fighting but unfortunately fell short in the SoCon tournament, but look to get back to work and compete next fall.

"Playing Volleyball at Samford allows me to grow as an athlete and a person through having a daily routine, strength training, and being a part of such a special team. - Sam Horn

On your mark, get set, run! The Samford Cross Country team competed at the highest level and had success this season as they are led by Wes Penberthy. The runners burned and churned their legs all season long. The team ended the season in the NCAA South Regional with the women finishing 11th out of a 31 team pool and the men finishing 18th out of a 26 team pool. They look to continue to work hard and run to the finish line as they prepare for next season.

The team had many comeback wins this year. "Our team never quit and had tremendous resilience." - Rylan Jones

The Men's Basketball team is led by hometown hero Bucky McMillian. After the dogs made it to the NCAA tournament last year and lost to Kansas on a last second call, they knew they had unfinished business going into this season. The Bulldogs finished the season 22-11 overall and 12-6 in conference play. The Bulldogs defended their home court as they had a 13-3 record at the Pete Hanna Center. The team competed at the highest level playing teams like Michigan State and Arizona which challenged the team to be better as they got into a tough Socon stretch of play. The Bulldogs, despite losing early to a sharp shooting Furman team in the Socon Championship in Asheville, got a bid to the NIT as they played against #2 seed George Mason. The dogs couldn't have their way that night, but they have had success since Bucky McMillian has been in charge. The Bulldogs have had 4 straight 20+ win seasons and look to be right back at the top of Socon next year.

Samford's women's basketball team is coached by Carly Kuhns as she entered into her 6th season here. Kuhns throughout her time here has turned around the program for the better and has got the team competing at a high level. The dogs overall were 12-19 and finished 7-7 in SoCon play. The Bulldogs were led by guard Sadie Stetson and center Emily Bowman as they among others got the team going at times. The dogs had an up and down SoCon stretch as unfortunately was a first round exit to Wofford in the SoCon tournament this year. The dogs will look to continue to hit the ground running and work on developing their chemistry as they look ahead to next season.

The Samford Track and Field squad is led by Rod Tiffin. Tiffin and his coaching staff have created a dynasty. Tiffin was the SoCon's men's coach of the year as the Bulldogs have swept 6 straight SoCon Championships. They added to the trophy case and each individual and team event that competed gave it their all. The bulldogs biggest race was in Atlanta, Georgia where they competed at the Georgia Tech Invitational. There Amiel Dabney finished 3rd in the women's 100 meter race with a time of 13.64 which was the 2nd fastest time in the event in outdoor school history. Bradley Franklin turned on the jets as he had broken record after record as just a rookie. He competed and won the 110 meter hurdles. The Bulldogs look to continue to move those legs in the right direction as they will train and get ready for what the future holds as they wrap up the season with a few final invitations and meets and hope to be in Eugene Oregon for the NCAA Outdoor Championships.

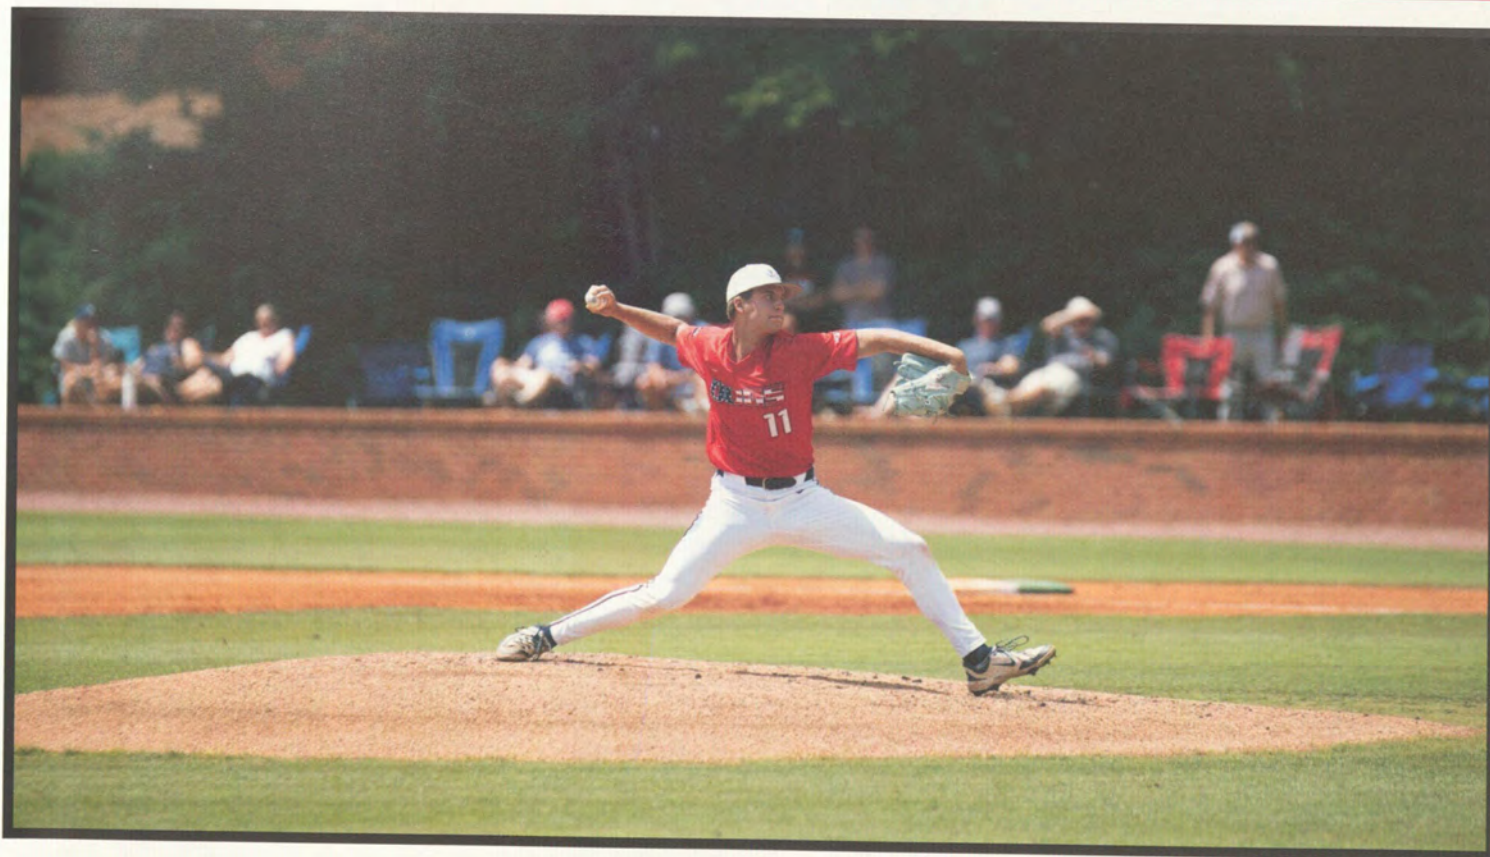

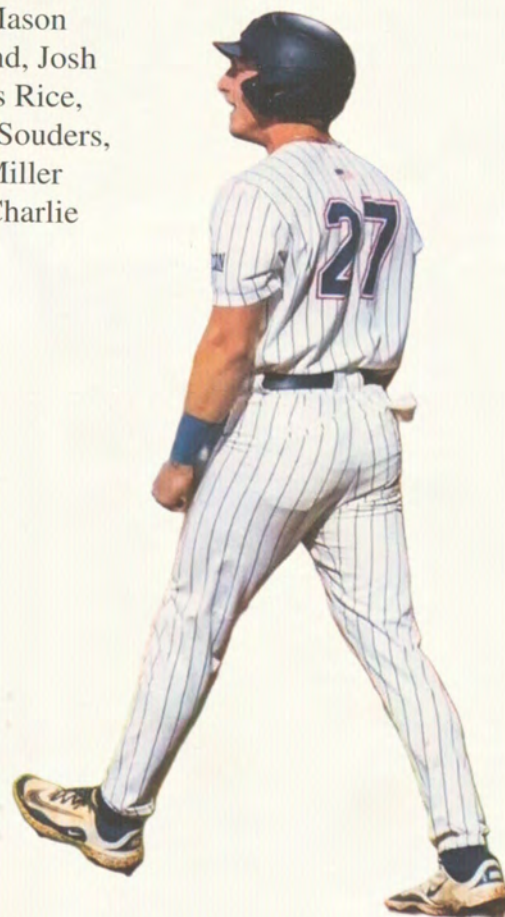

Swinging for the fences! Head Coach Tony David has had great success as he knows how to win at a high level and be dedicated to the program. He was a recruiting coordinator and associate head coach for many years before getting dealt the hand of becoming head coach. He has been the program's head coach for 3 years now. David and his guys early on played a top level Tennessee squad as they fell short. However, as the season progressed the dogs faced Alabama, Auburn, Creighton and many more higher level teams. The competition doesn't stop there as SoCon play is top level competition where Samford among many other teams are fighting for the SoCon Championship. The Bulldogs have had 2 full clean sweeps, one against the Evansville Aces, and the other against their SoCon rival Wofford Terriers. The Bulldogs have three more SoCon tests as they will face Western Carolina, UNCG, and Mercer. Currently the Dogs are standing at the top of the conference as they look to continue to improve in SoCon play down the stretch. David will have his team whipped up into shape as they look to head back to the NCAA tournament this season.

She is out of here! Samford is led by first year head coach Megan Curry who came over from Birmingham Southern, which of course is no longer. Curry has had a great start to the season at Samford as they look to ultimately win a SoCon Championship. Samford has 6 seniors, giving them the veteran talent and locker room leadership to get the job done, along with the younger players who are eager and have the mentality to win! The Bulldogs had 3 clean sweeps against cross road rival UAB and two Socon teams as they got brooms out and swept WCU and ETSU. The dogs are at the top of the conference as they end the regular season at home against Wofford. The Lady Dogs are excited to travel down to Spartanburg, South Carolina to compete in the SoCon tournament. The Bulldogs look to finish the season strong, and make a playoff appearance. The future is definitely bright for Curry and her team.

Do not let anyone fool you, Samford Tennis was in full swing as they have played matches at a high level and are looking to ace their competitions when competing. The men are led by Oliver Reynolds. The men's team finished overall 19-5 and won a SoCon Championship as they beat UNCG (4-1), then swept Mercer (4-0), and ended by taking down Furman (4-3) as they will get some bling for their trophy case. The women were led by coach David Vest. The women's squad finished 9-14 and 6-5 at home as a big accomplishment was taking down cross road rival UAB (4-2). The women, despite their hard played season, unfortunately fell short against ETSU in the SoCon tournament. Reynolds and Vest both have their respective squads as they grew in chemistry. They are looking to have both squads continue to get better for next year.

"We were able to achieve this success because we know each other's game style and we also know we will always have each other's backs."
- Meredith Taylor

Hole in one! The Women's and Men's Samford golf team is wrapping up the season as they have competed in many team and individual events so far at various invitationals. The men's golf team finished 4th out of 10 teams in the Arkansas State Spring Intercollegiate, in Jonesboro Arkansas. Samford was led individually by Gavin Isbell who finished 5th in a pool of 60 golfers finishing the round 6 under. While freshman golfer, Tiaan Hugo, has really been the most improved this year. Al DelGreco has been the man for 7 seasons now as the golf team looks to compete at a high level at the SoCon Championship. This is held in Greensboro Georgia where they will compete in late April and continue to grow together as the season progresses.

The women's golf team has competed at a high level as well as finishing 6th at the ULM Invitational. Anika Richards, tied for 6th in a pool of 57 as the women finished up in Columbia, South Carolina and tied for 6th out of 9 teams in the SoCon Championship. Both squads did well and look to continue to improve for next year!

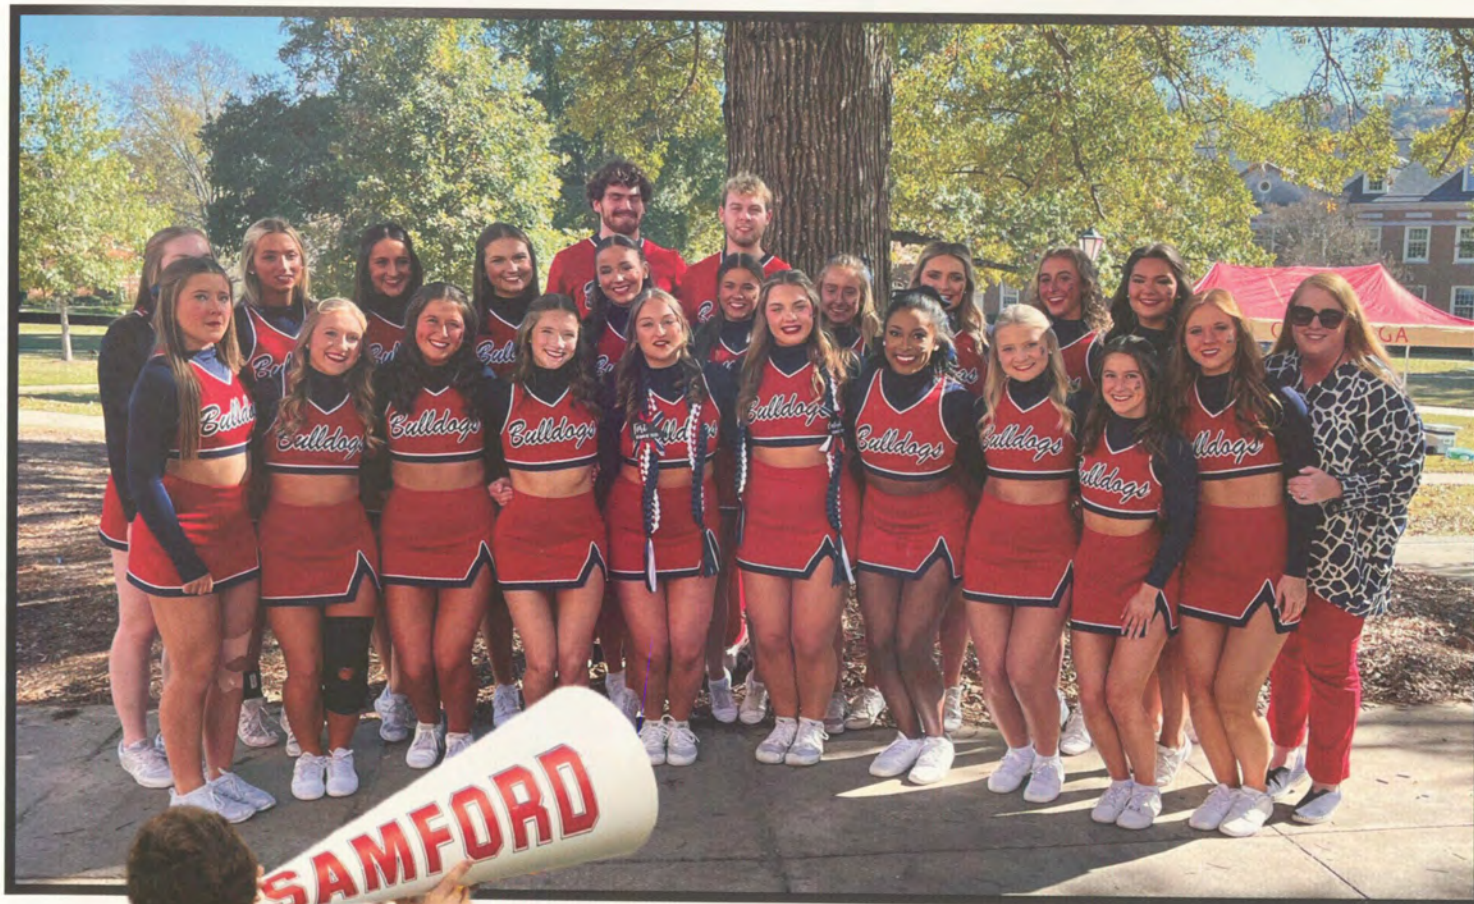

Spirit! Service! Success! The Samford University Cheerleaders had an exciting and impactful year, bringing energy and enthusiasm to campus and beyond. They cheered on the Bulldogs at football, basketball, and volleyball games, supporting teams with unwavering school spirit. The squad were all over this year from, traveling to Asheville, North Carolina, for the SoCon Basketball Tournament, cheering at the University of Florida football game, hosting multiple stunt clinics to engage and inspire young athletes, and participating in Homecoming festivities. Through their dedication, service, and school spirit, the Samford Cheerleaders made a lasting impact on the university and the community. Go Bulldogs!

"Being on the Cheer Team has given me great teammates and even better friends who I will cherish forever." - Cooper Johnston

A standout moment for the team this year was traveling with the basketball team to the SOCON championship, where they delivered an unforgettable performance. The team is always on the move, hosting Pre-Audition clinics every Fall and Spring to help prepare future dancers. The Dance Team's hard work and positive attitudes continue to inspire both Samford athletics and the student body, keeping everyone motivated and united.

"Being on the Dance Team at Samford has given me a unique opportunity to support our school while continuing to do what I love."
- Mallory Reeder

MARCHING BAND

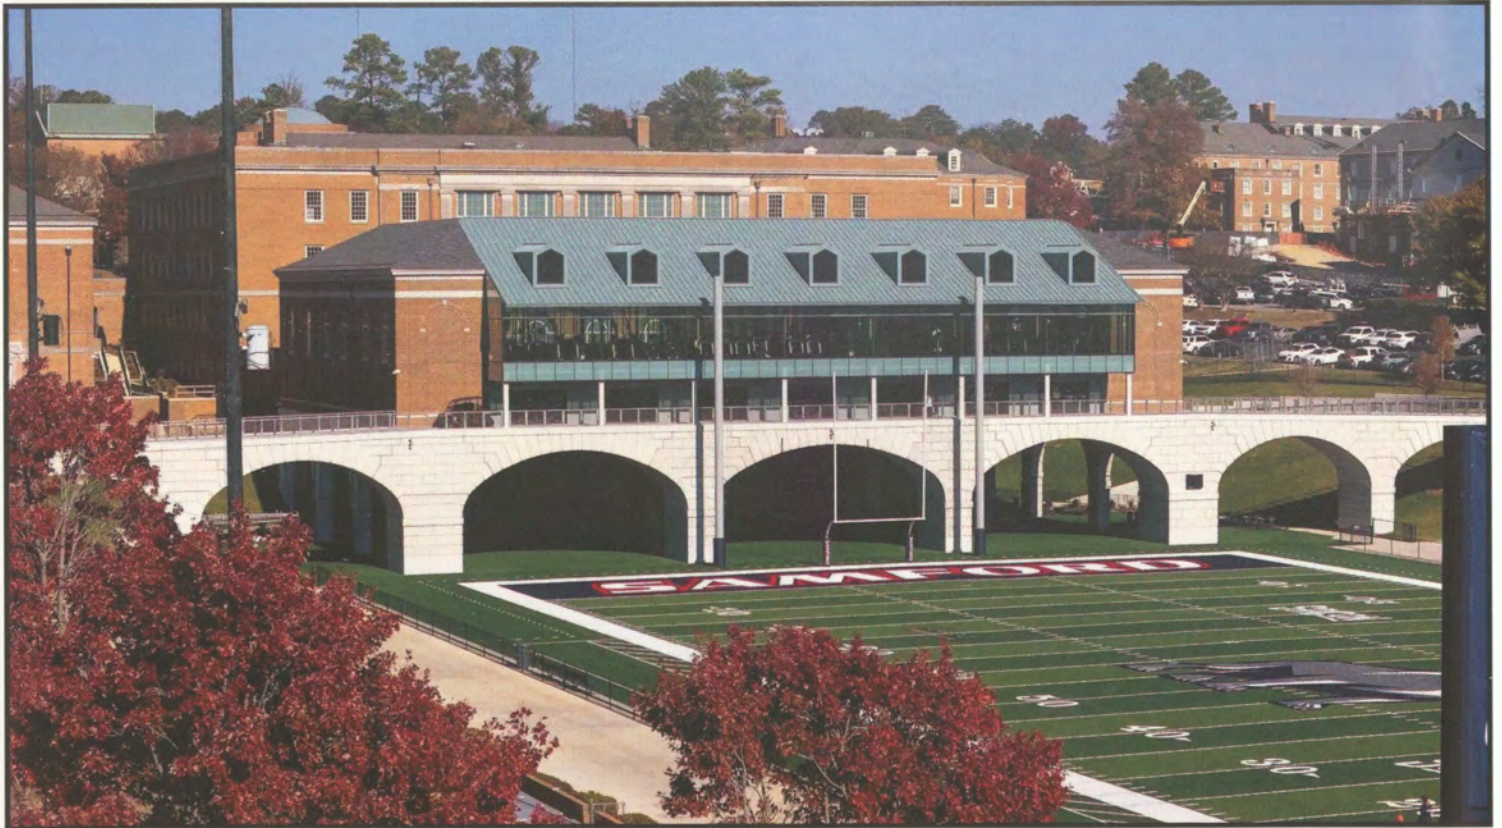

Bucky McMillian ultimately decided to take the reins and move to College Station as he now will bring Bucky Ball to Texas A&M as their new head coach. This leads Samford to finding a new coach to control Pete and that would become Lennie Acuff as he came over from Lipscomb University where he had great success. Acuff is a family guy who fits the perfect mold for Samford.

We don't know yet if Acuff will be successful on the court with his new team, but what we do know is that he has already been successful gaining Samford's favor and trust. Now we will see what the new era of Samford men's basketball holds.

LENNIE BALL?

SEIBERT RENOVATION

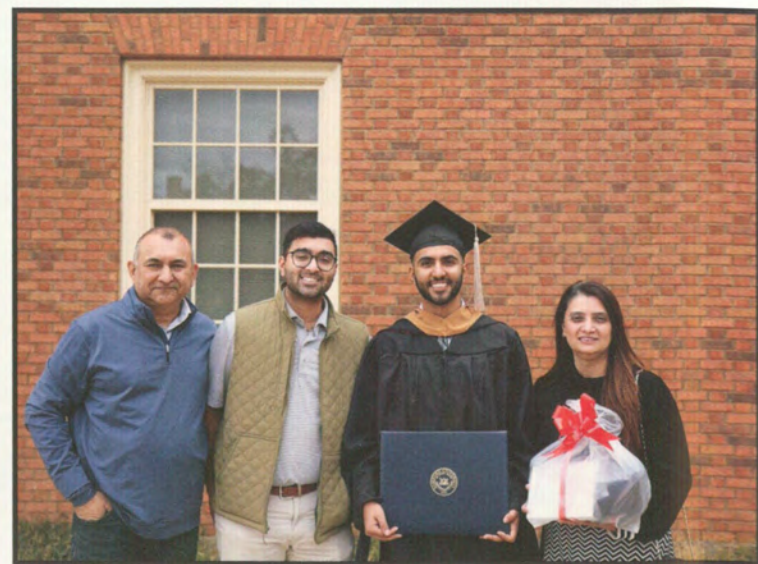

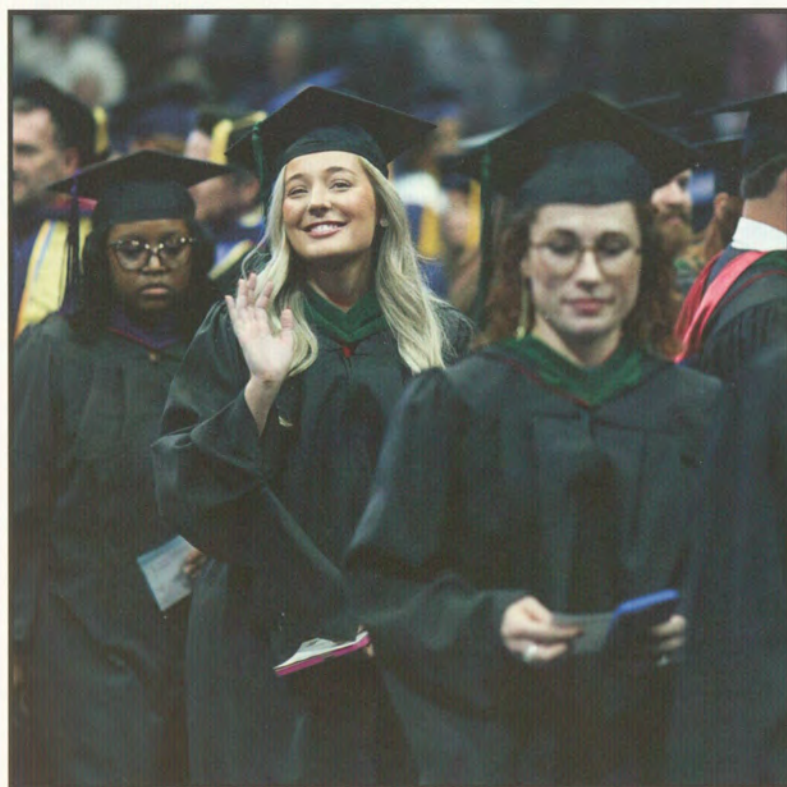

In a step toward enriching campus life, Samford University broke ground in April 2023 on the largest capital project in its history, the $65 million Campus Recreation, Wellness and Athletic Complex. This expansion includes a complete redesign of Seibert Hall, which features basketball courts, an e-sports studio, fitness and dance spaces, a multi-use workout area, and common areas like a coffee house and 24-hour convenience store. The complex, totaling 165,000 square feet across four buildings, is designed to foster student well-being, offering physical fitness, mental health, and community engagement resources.

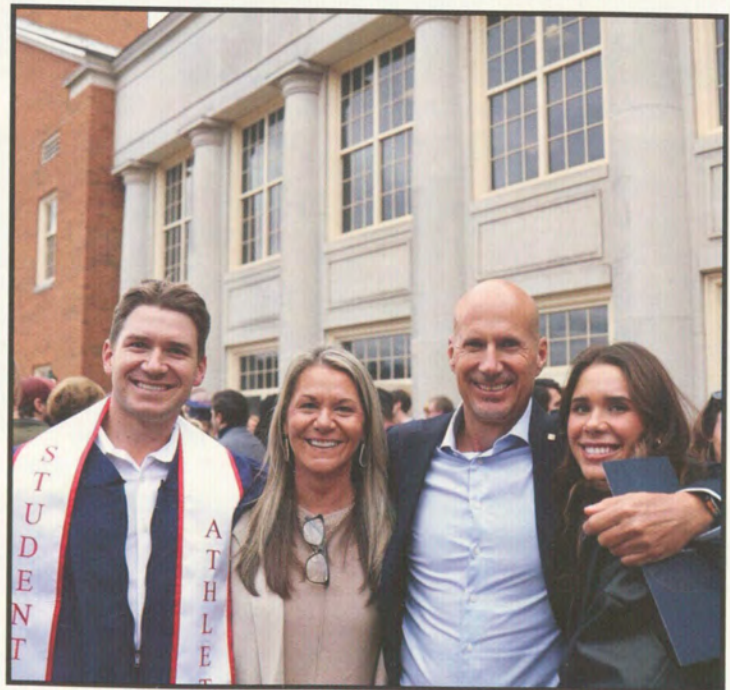

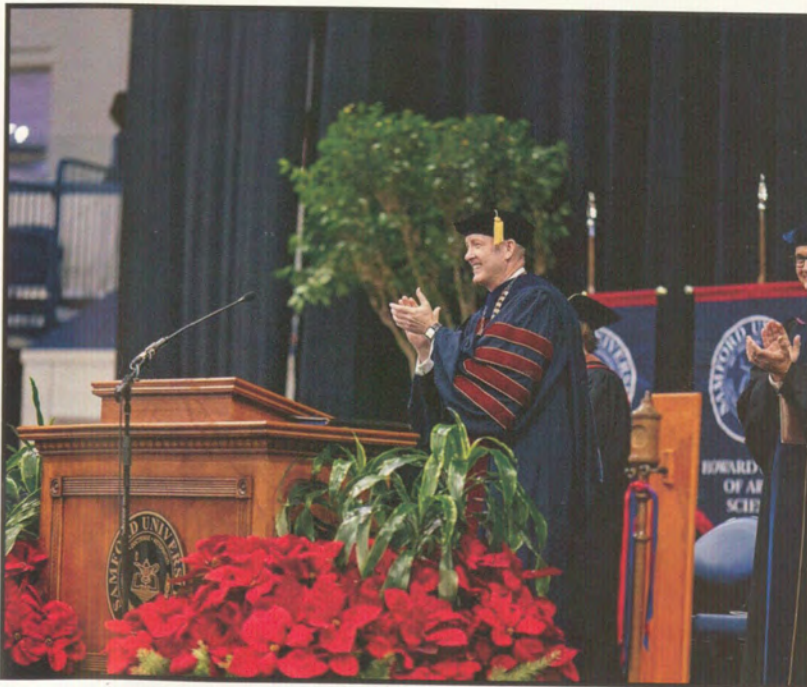

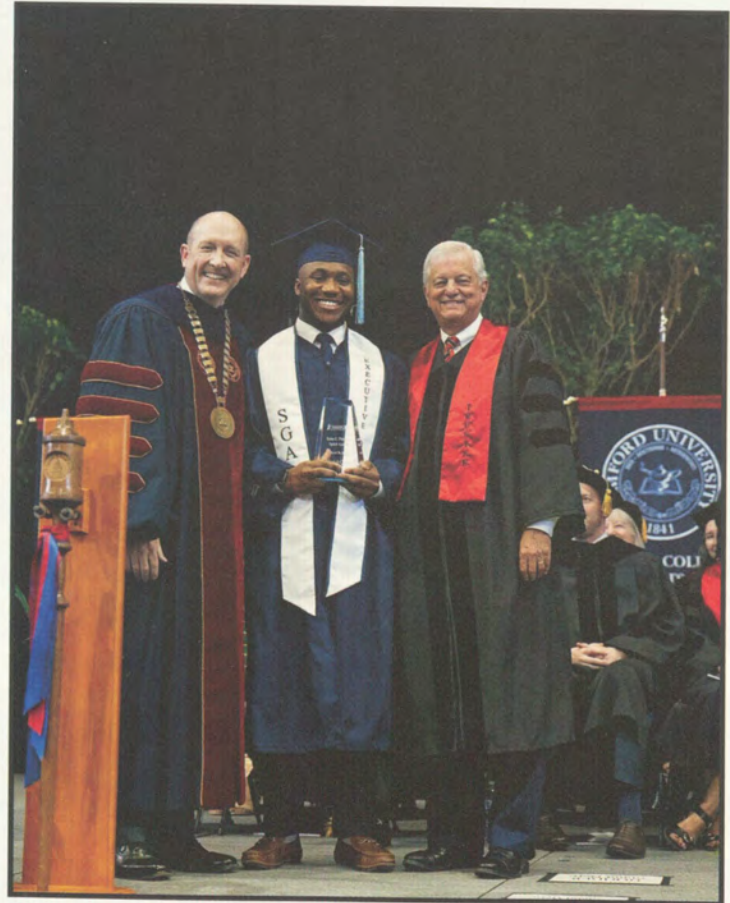

The complex, which opened in September 2024, has quickly become a vibrant hub on campus, drawing over 9,000 visits in its first week alone.
